DETAILED ACTION

Below is a new office action to replace the action mailed on 7/1/04. The period for response has been restarted. Claims 27-49 remain in the application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 27,28,30-32,41,42,44-46 and 48 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hebbecke.

Hebbecke discloses all of the subject matter as set forth in the claims and is identical to the invention as broadly recited. Some of the claimed elements clearly disclosed by the reference are: a chip element (4) and a strip element (6). The device can be made of several materials. (see column 2, lines 30-35). In regard to claims 31 and 46, applicants attention is directed to column 2, lines 39-49).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 29,33-37,43 and 49 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hebbecke.

Hebbecke discloses the claimed invention except for the claimed locations as set forth in the claims. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to locate the chip elements in the claimed locations, since it has been held that rearranging parts of an invention involves only routine skill in the art. In re Japikse, 86 USPQ 70.

In regard to claims 33,40 and 49 Official Notice is taken of the use of peel off coupons on a base layer assembly. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use peel off coupons on the base layer of Hebbecke since the use of such is old and well known in the art.

Art Unit: 3722

Claims 38 and 47 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hebbecke in view of Carides et al.

Hebbecke discloses the claimed invention except for a scratch off foil treatment. Carides et al. teaches that it is well known in the art to use a scratch off foil treatment to obscure indicia. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide Hebbecke with a scratch off foil treatment to obscure indicia in the manner as taught by Carides et al. in order to add another degree of security to the document.
